

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. If I wish to have contact with established businesses that I have a relationship with I will contact them. Since the law went into effect my family is no longer bothered by deals the credit card companies and banks try to push on consumers. Thank you for your consideration.